

Report to the Town Council

Communications and Public Relations Committee

December 13, 2019

The last meeting of the Communications and Public Relations Committee was held on November 8, 2109. The Communications and Public Relations Committee sponsored a Holiday Caroling Party which was held from 3 to 5 pm on December 7th. Over forty residents, children and grandchildren participated. The First State Trolley was engaged to drive carolers around town singing to residents and visitors, including 2 former mayors. Police Cars escorted the Trolley. Thanks to Chief Jason Lovins and Officer Patrick Wiley for their expert assistance. Thanks also to Al Rae our choral director, and Richard Oliver who appeared as Santa. A light supper was held at town hall following the event. Refreshments were provided by the Communications and Public Relations Committee, Stephanie Bunoski, Margaret Oliver, Ann Boteler, Lisa Saxton, and Linda Whitney.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Stevenson, Chairman and Town Council Member
